BROWSE, MARVEL AND LEARN.

The permanent exhibition "Landscape – shaped and used" forms the heart of the amenity. On an area covering 1,650 m² it tells the history of the Barnim district, from the beginnings as an ice-age wilderness to today's modern cultivated landscape. The backbone of the exhibition is made up of over 1,500 exhibits from the collection of the time-honoured Agricultural Museum Wandlitz. The interactive elements, audio and game stations will make your visit a multimedia experience that appeals to all your senses.

Diversity in thematic areas

Wild Barnim

Tens of thousands of years ago mighty natural forces shaped the landscape in the Barnim district and created the basis for human settlement and use. Ancient objects dating from the ice age up to the Slavic period provide an impression of how our forefathers lived.

Earthmoving

Life is not possible without land – it is no accident that "earth" is one of the four elements. Learn all about land and soil as providers of food, as an aspect of biology, as conflict-ridden property and as an object of speculation.

Herd of tractors

Wind your way through a "herd" of imposing tractors and other agricultural machines, from the legendary Lanz-Bulldog to the ZT 323, the last tractor from the former East Germany. Climb into the high-tech cab of a modern tractor yourself and let your childhood dreams come true!

Country life

Nothing shapes life in the country as much as the change of seasons and the associated activities in the fields, farmyard and farmhouse. Take a look at the attractions Barnim offers in the course of the year.

Lake views

From the highest point of the building there is a wonderful view over the Wandlitzsee Lake. An original drill core testifies to the lake as a deep-reaching habitat. Take a seat on the sofa and explore the surrounding landscape by telescope.

Barnim stories

What could be more fun than to see the world from above! A giant walk-over map shows the Nature Park from a bird's eye view. The wealth of detail encourages discovery tours. Where am I? Where are there nice places? Where would I like to take a walk?

BARNIM TREASURES

The Discovery Trail lets you explore the various habitats of the Barnim Nature Park on a small scale – whether in the tree-house, on the nature platform or in the waterside amphibian theatre.
